

Request a Leaf for the Airedale Tree of Tranquillity

If you would like a leaf for the Tree of Tranquillity please fill in the following details:

The SiMBA Tree of Tranquillity is a commissioned life size sculpture which has been provided by SiMBA and funded by Aidan's Elephants. The Tree is adorned with individual leaves, which can be engraved with personal messages, each one representing a forever loved and missed baby or child.

The home for the Airedale Tree of Tranquillity will be within the grounds of Airedale NHS Foundation Trust Hospital, Skipton Road, Steeton, Keighley, West Yorkshire, BD20 6TD. The Tree is situated in the 'Sunbeam' Baby Remembrance Garden. Upon entering the hospital grounds take the perimeter road to the left, following the signs for the West Car Park. The Sunbeam Garden is opposite to Zone P3. The garden is a tranquil, private space, brightened with seasonal floral displays and subtle lighting. The entrance to the garden is secured by a stunning custom designed metal gate, depicting an elephant to represent Aidan's Elephants and the Sunbeam Support Group (run by Airedale Midwives), delicate leaves to represent the Tree of Tranquillity and little hand and footprints to represent the children who will be remembered there. The Sunbeam Garden is open to anyone who wishes to visit. You can obtain the digital key code for the gate by contacting Aidan's Elephants.
